Major Daniel L. And she suggests that her evidence can only show that the shift in Vietnamese strategy took place at the same time when the Chinese were trying to prevent the Korean War from further escalation.

Thebook'sgoalistoexamine"thepoliticalandmilitaryrelationshipbetween Of course, it is perfectly legitimate for historians to use those two categories of primary sources. On the one hand, the primary concern of the Chinese, Calkins argues, was to secure the Sino-Vietnamese border in their struggle against the Nationalist forces.
