The Thyatirans victors who must daily refuse fleshly appetites are promised kingly rule and glory. But right teaching cannot replace love. You must strongly decide to change your ways. Today, in fact, not only is the church at Ephesus gone, the whole city is gone. Were these systems really formed by chance? Smith who said: The only aspect of this interpretation that may have some virtue is the interpretation of Laodicea. We are poor but we are making many people rich. They said that Christians ate people. He would be a danger to the state. You need to remember that for all of these churches, there was no previous church in town.
