NightmareFuel:Thebookmakesitveryclearthatgettingshotisnotfun. A comedic masterpiece, that. Jet Li is certainly better at playing twins than Jean-Claude Van Damme, but the movie's too rushed to take any advantage of its storyline even with the end credits it comes in at less than 90 minutes ; it also doesn't thrill as much as it should, and often doesn't really make much sense even on its own terms - The One One"

officially becomes irredeemably stupid when the good Li dons an outfit like the one the bad Li is wearing, when it would have been safer and more sensible for him to continue wearing the white gown he had on before, what with the police and the multiverse The One officers Delroy Lindo and Jason Statham after the one in said outfit. But let's face it America never wanted to enter The Selection let alone being at the The One and she definitely didn't want a prince or the crown.
