They DEAR JON more than any work possibility and you need to recognise this and put them . BraedenReedas6YearsOldAlan.Dear John Critics Consensus Built from many of the same ingredients as other Nicholas Sparks tearjerkers, Dear John suffers from its cliched framework, as well as Lasse Hallstrom's curiously detached directing. At the very least, Tatum's and Seyfried's chemistry compels, being just strong enough to get the film by as a romantic DEAR JON piece, while inspiration in plenty of other substance departments really keep you sticking with things, not to where the film rewards as much as it could have, but certainly to where you end up with a decent final product, which boasts enough entertainment value and high points in dramatic kick to stand as DEAR JON, if a bit flawed.
