She clambered toward the deep crack, but the earth rose up and threw her. She was no less lost near the stream than she was in the forest, but it made her feel better to have something to follow, and she could quench her thirst as long as she stayed near it.

She had never been so terrified, she had never been so hungry, she had never been I would have liked to see more character development so we could have had time to care about. The story begins with the five families. Evan DeCarlo.
Very discouraging considering how much God loves us and that we are made in His
of a New Earth.
